Caution: Delinquencies, Defaults, Foreclosures and Abuses

Delinquencies, defaults, foreclosures and abuses of mortgage loans involving programs of the Federal Government can be costly and detrimental to your credit, now and in the future. The Mortgagee in this transaction, its agents and assigns, as well as the Federal Government, its agencies, agents and assigns are authorized to take any and all of the following actions in the event loan payments become delinquent on the mortgage loan described in the attached application: (1) Report your name and account information to a credit bureau; (2) Assess additional interest and penalty charges for the period of time that payment is not made; (3) Assess charges to cover additional administrative costs incurred by the Federal Government to service your account; (4) Offset amounts owed to you under other Federal programs; (5) Refer your account to a private attorney, collection agency or mortgage servicing agency to collect the amount due, foreclose the mortgage, sell the property, and seek judgment against you for any deficiency; (6) Refer your account to the Department of Justice (DOJ) for litigation in the courts; (7) If you are a current or retired Federal employee, take action to offset your salary, or civil service retirement benefits; (8) Refer your debt to the Internal Revenue Service for offset against any amount owed to you as an income tax refund; and (9) Report any resulting written off debt of yours to the Internal Revenue Service as your taxable income. All of these actions may be used to recover any debts owed when it is determined to be in the interest of the Mortgagee or Federal Government, or both.

As a mortgage loan borrower, you will be legally obligated to make the mortgage payments called for by your mortgage loan contract. The fact that you dispose of your property after the loan has been made will not relieve you of liability for making these payments. Payment of the loan in full is ordinarily the way liability on a mortgage note is ended. Some home buyers have the mistaken impression that if they sell their homes when they move to another locality, or dispose of it for any other reasons, they are no longer liable for the mortgage payments and that liability for these payments is solely that of the new owners. Even though the new owners may agree in writing to assume liability for your mortgage payments, this assumption agreement will not relieve you from liability to the holder of the note which you signed when you obtained the loan to buy the property. Unless you are able to sell the property to a buyer who is acceptable to HUD/FHA who will assume the payment of your obligation to the lender, you will not be relieved from liability to repay any claim which HUD/FHA may be required to pay your lender on account of default in your loan payments. The amount of any such claim payment may be a debt owed by you to the Federal Government and subject to established collection procedures.

Fair Housing Act

I and anyone acting on my behalf are, and will remain, in compliance with the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. § 3604, et seq., with respect to the dwelling or property covered by the loan and in the provision of services or facilities in connection therewith. I recognize that any restrictive covenant on this property related to race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status, or national origin is unlawful under the Fair Housing Act and unenforceable. I further recognize that in addition to administrative action by HUD, a civil action may be brought by the DOJ in any appropriate U.S. court against any person responsible for a violation of the applicable law.
